
THE FAMILY LAW AGREEMENTS GROUP

The Family Law Agreements Group has been set up by solicitors from a range of family law practices to provide a client focussed approach to the drafting and negotiation of nuptial, separation and cohabitation agreements.

We adhere to a specific code of practice when negotiating such agreements within the group to ensure that the discussions are conducted in as pragmatic a manner as possible with the ultimate goal of minimising the stress, anxiety and cost to our clients.

Conrad Adam, partner
Wedlake Bell
+44 (0)20 7674 0541
cadam@wedlakebell.com

Conrad is a family lawyer with 25 years' experience. One of the first lawyers to be collaboratively trained in England and also a trained mediator he adopts a very sensible, realistic, and non-confrontational approach to drafting and negotiating the terms of pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements.

Dickon Ceadel, senior associate
Forsters
+44 (0)20 7863 8395
dickon.ceadel@forsters.co.uk

Dickon advises on all aspects of private family law, including divorce and separation, financial claims, pre and post-nuptial agreements, cohabitation disputes, and all issues regarding private children law. Dickon is an active member of Resolution.

Edward Floyd, partner
Penningtons Manches Cooper
+44 (0)20 7753 7806
edward.floyd@penningtonslaw.com

Edward advises on all legal issues arising from relationship breakdown and increasingly, preparing and negotiating pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements.

Edward acts for a wide variety of clients, including entrepreneurs, City professionals and their spouses and also has experience of working on cases with complex asset structures.

Flora Harragin, senior associate
Farrer & Co
+44 (0)20 3375 7567
flora.harragin@farrer.co.uk

Flora advises a diverse range of clients on all aspects of private family law including pre and post nuptial agreements, cohabitation agreements, divorce, complex financial disputes further to a marital or relationship breakdown and disputes relating to children.

Flora acts for bankers and other professionals, entrepreneurs, homemakers and wealthy international couples, with an equal balance of male and female clients. A significant number of Flora's matters have an international element.

Robert Hines, managing associate

Mishcon de Reya

+44 (0)20 3321 6190

robert.hines@mishcon.com

Robert specialises in all aspects of family law, including divorce; financial remedy claims; jurisdictional disputes and private children law proceedings.

Robert has particular expertise in complex financial disputes (particularly those with an international dimension) and drafting and advising on pre and post marital agreements.

Robert Micklem, legal director

Burgess Mee Family Law

+44 (0)203 824 9956

robertmicklem@burgessmee.com

Robert handles all types of family law work and advises a wide range of national and international clients on divorce, matrimonial finance, nuptial agreements, private children matters and disputes between cohabiting couples. Robert sits on the Committees for the London and London South West Regions of Resolution.

Hannah Minty, senior associate

Russell-Cooke

+44 (0)20 8394 6346

Hannah.Minty@Russell-Cooke.co.uk

Hannah is dual-qualified in both England & Wales and in Scotland and regularly advises on pre and post-nuptial agreements, including those with significant assets and/or a cross-border element as well as cases where the assets are more modest. As an active member of Resolution, trained collaborative lawyer, and current Chair of South West London Resolution committee, Hannah is committed to resolving matters in a pragmatic and sensible way.

James Patrick, solicitor

Jones Nickolds

+44 (0)20 3405 2300

james.patrick@jonesnickolds.co.uk

James undertakes all aspects of private family law, with a particular interest in nuptial agreements. James has experience dealing with complex financial issues, as well as those with an international dimension. He is committed to dealing with matters in a cost effective and pragmatic way.

Elizabeth Shaw, senior editor

Practical Law

elizabeth.s.shaw@thomsonreuters.com

Elizabeth trained and qualified at Payne Hicks Beach, where she dealt primarily with complex high net worth financial remedy disputes, often with an international element.

Elizabeth has a particular interest in nuptial agreements, having worked on the case of Radmacher v Granatino from first instance to the landmark Supreme Court decision. Elizabeth is currently a non-practising solicitor at Practical Law, part of Thomson Reuters. She is responsible for the nuptial agreements and relationship planning section of the Practical Law Family service, including the precedent pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements.
